Attached for discussion tomorrow is a new version of the near-term strategy drafted by Dave Harlow. As he notes below, additional forthcoming pieces from DWR and Frances Brewster will need to get folded into the mix, but I wanted to get this to you this evening to increase the chance you might be able to look at it before tomorrow.

As a reminder, we are meeting here at SWC from 9:30 to 11, and the call in number is 916.657.4110.

Laura-

Here is the latest, both in red line and clean versions, since the red line is hard to follow. DWR has prepared an separate detailed document on PEI, that I think Jerry may want to send or bring himself. Also, Frances is working on the last section and should get changes to me later this evening.

Its still very much a work in progress.
